

NOTICE OF FORFEITURE.

Ira Fancher and Wm. Turner, you heirs and assigns:
Ira Fancher and Wm. Turner are hereby notified that the undersigned has expended in labor and improvements on the Hill Top lode mining claim, situated in the Goldfield mining district, Nye county, Nevada, the sum of $100, the sum for the years 1909, 1910, 1911, of which you Ira Fancher, are a half owner, and you, Wm. Turner a one-fourth owner. Under the provisions of section 2324, of the Revised Statutes of the United States of America, covering annual assessment labor on mining claims; the proof of labor of the said claim was duly recorded at the recorder's office, at Goldfield, Esmeralda county, State of Nevada. Said expenditure was the amount necessary to hold said mining claim during the aforesaid years and if within 90 days from the date of the first publication of this notice, you fail or refuse to contribute your proportion of said expenditure as co-owner, which amounts to $225 to you together with the cost of this advertisement, your interest in the said claims will become the property of the undersigned, your co-owner, who has made the expenditure and improvements above mentioned.

HUGH SUTHERLAND,
District Judge for Above Entitled Court.

ORIGIN OF LEAP YEAR.

In the early times the length of the civil year was regulated so imperfectly that in the days of Julius Caesar the spring occurred in what the calendar called summer. Caesar, with the help of Sosigenes, reformed the calendar of 46 B. C. and introduced our present arrangement of having three years of 355 days followed by one 366, dividing the year into months nearly as at present. The irregularity of alternation in the months of thirty and thirty-one days was introduced a few years later to gratify the vanity of Augustus, giving his month of August as many days as Julius Caesar's month of July. The additional day was given in leap year to February, by calling the fifth day before the Calends of March a second sixth; whence leap year is still called in the almanacs bissextile year. This calendar of Julius Caesar is still used in the Russian empire and was in use in all Europe until 1582. Its error consists in making the years 265 1/4 days, which is about 11 minutes too much. Pope Gregory, by a brief order October 5, 1582, ordered that the years 1700, 1800 and 1900 should not be called leap years—every other year whose number is divisible by four without a remainder is to be recognized as such.—St. Louis Times.

GOVERNOR INVITED TO ADDRESS COLORADO MEETING.

Governor Oddie received a telegram Wednesday from Denver, Colo., reading as follows: "Can you be principal speaker at big commercial and industrial demonstration to be held in Denver on Tuesday evening, March 19th. If this date is not convenient we will try to make it any day that week you designate." The telegram was signed by Allison Stocker, president of the Denver chamber of commerce.—Carson City News.

TONOPAH AND GOLDFIELD
RAILROAD COMPANY

In view of the over abundance of musical comedies and the lighter order of theatrical attractions, there is always a pleasurable anticipation decidedly manifested in the interest of a genuine dramatic entertainment, hence it is not at all surprising to note the general interest being taken in the engagement at the Nevada theater next Monday night of "The White Sister," Viola Allen's greatest success, a dramatization of F. Marion Crawford's universally read novel of the same title. A play which has commanded the respectful attention of the clergy of every denomination and has won the highest esteem from the newspaper critics—all of

AFTER FORTY YEARS

CAMDEN, S. C., WOMAN RECOVERS FROM STOMACH TROUBLE.

No one who is not well nourished can be good-natured. That is why dyspeptics are always irritable. But stomach trouble can be cured in nearly all cases, even after years of suffering. Mrs. Sarah C. Ammons, Camden, S. C., says: "I suffered from nervous dyspepsia for forty years and feared I should never get over it. It kept me in misery all the time. I was terribly run down, could not sleep—thought my health was ruined."

"Last spring I began taking Vinol and it has no equal. I soon began to improve and now I am a well woman again for the first time in forty years. My appetite is good, I sleep well and have no stomach trouble at all. These are the plain facts."

Take our word for it, when you are weak and run down, cannot eat or sleep, Vinol is what you need for it will build you up and make you strong. We guarantee Vinol to please—your money back if it does not—Miners' Drug Store, Inc., Tonopah, Nevada.

AS TO LAWYERS.

Speaker Champ Clark tells of a Missouri lawyer named Strange, who became ill and feared he was about to die.

Calling his wife to him, Lawyer Strange said:

"Now, my dear, when I die, I would like you to put a little headstone at my grave and on it simply say, 'Here lies an honest lawyer.'"

The wife expressed surprise that her husband did not wish his name on the stone.

"That will not be necessary," he said. "Everyone who passes and sees the inscription will at once say, 'That's Strange.'"—McCall's Magazine.

NEW OFFICIAL FOR POST-OFFICE AT CARSON CITY

The Carson News says that a telegram has been received in that city by Bud Goode from Congressman E. E. Roberts wherein Mr. Goode is notified that he has been nominated as postmaster of that city. This appointment will meet with unanimous favor in Carson, as Mr. Goode is a man who holds the trust of one and all and whose name has always stood for principle and honesty. Mr. Goode has been whom proclaim that "The White Sister" is the one particular intensely dramatic play woven around the elements of love and religion that is absolutely free from any attempts at sensationalism.

"The White Sister" will be offered with Miss Jeanne Towler, who has been acknowledged by the leading critics of the country, as one of the greatest emotional geniuses of the present day stage, in the title role and other artists of fine reputation. Messrs. Morrison and Warde, under whose auspices the production is made, have taken special pains to preserve the scenic atmosphere which gave this play its original prestige.

a deputy in the office of United States Marshal Humphrey for several years past and has proven to be a capable and efficient officer. The new appointee has been a lifelong friend of Congressman Roberts and prior to the departure of the congressman to Washington, he promised the position to Mr. Goode.

"PLEASE REMIT" A WESTERN COMEDY AT THE BUTLER

Tonight is the big night of features at the Butler theater. "The Battle of Pottsgrove Bridge," a civil war story of a southern girl's bravery is a picture filled with thrilling war scenes, and is pronounced by critics to be one of the best productions available. Pathe's Weekly No. 4 contains many interesting events of the world's doings, notable among which is the burning of the Equitable Life Assurance building, in which several lives were lost, including that of the battalion fire chief. Over $300,000 worth of property was destroyed and the vaults containing valuable papers were covered with tons of debris. "Please Remit" is a western comedy showing how the misconstrued meaning of a shotgun in the hands of a bankrupt editor brought the evasive debtors around to see him in a hurry. "Alkali Ike's Love Affair" is a burlesque by the Western Essay company, which never fails to amuse every one. Don't miss the program tonight, for it is one of exceptional merit.
